SPORTS

The Hominy Bucks had nine returning lettermen this season. As time was getting closer to the first game, the Bucks were polishing up their rough edges and preparing to start the tough schedule that lay before them. Starting off the season good with the first game, the Bucks beat Cushing 13-0. With the first game in their favor, the Bucks journeyed to Pawhuska the following week. They played a hard game, but the Huskies overpowered them with a 12-0 score in their favor. Pawnee was the next game scheduled, but because of bad weather, the game was played on the following Monday. The Bucks couldn't get to rolling on the Bears field and suffered a 20-0 defeat. The next game was the first home game of the season. The Bucks played host to the Tulsa Cascia Hall eleven. Being in good shape and on their own field, the Bucks defeated the Tulsa bunch 6-0. On the next Friday, the Bucks had their homecoming game with the Cleveland Tigers. The Bucks came through on top by the score of 13-0; and the football queen, Laverne Bradford, was crowned at the half by Charles Newhouse, the captain who had led the Bucks in their victory over the Tigers. The Bucks' next opponent was Barnsdall. They defeated this new and inexperienced team with a 12-0 score. With the Dewey Bulldogs undefeated and next on their list, the Bucks had to win this game to get in the play offs. The Bucks held the favored Bulldogs scoreless until they exploded with a pass to defeat the Bucks 7-0 in the last four minutes of the game. The next week, the Bucks had an easier time on their own field when the Oilton Panthers visited the Bucks. The score was 51 to 0 in the Bucks' favor, but the game was played hard even to the last second of the game. On Armistice Day, we found the Bucks in Fairfax. The Bucks invaded the Fairfax eleven and defeated them 19-0. The tenth and last game was played with Yale on our own field. Even though the game turned out to be a little rough, the Bucks finished the season with a 13-0 victory over Yale.

The Hominy Bucks turned in a record of seven wins and three losses out of the ten games that they played. They ran up a score of 127 points to their opponents' 39, and finished third in the district of 12-B. The Bucks placed Newhouse and Moss on the all-district team, and Hendricks and Fields were on the second all-district team.

FOOTBALL

BASKETBALL

The Hominy Bucks turned in another successful season in basketball. They won 17 out of 23 scheduled games. Those teams that fell before the Bucks include the following: Fairfax, Skiatook, Barnsdall, Pawhuska, Yale, Oilton, Cleveland, and Pawnee. They were the winner of the County Tournament. In this tournament, the Bucks defeated Shidler and Burbank. This made the fifth straight year that Hominy has won the county tournament. The Bucks reached the finals of the Cleveland invitational tournament by defeating Ramona, Keystone, and Cleveland. They were beaten by Ralston in the finals by a very small margin. On February 12, the Bucks won the North State Conference by defeating Fairfax after having defeated Oilton, Pawnee, and Cleveland. Coach Burris is to be congratulated for having worked with the boys through both football and basketball season with good results.

The Pep Squad of the Hominy High School held their first meeting of the year with their sponsor, Miss Marion Eaves, on September 7, 1945, for the purpose of electing officers. Moe Lazelle was elected president; Willa Mae Barlow, vice-president; Bobby Dale, secretary and treasurer; Laverne Bradford, yell leader; Wanda Potts, assistant yell leader; Evelyn Copeland, song leader; and Cara Lee Powell, drum majorette.

At the next meeting, new members were voted on and selected. They included Kathryn Orrill, Nelda Killgore, Helen Cox, Betty Hanley, Betty Barton, Earnie Ann Beaston, Georgia Mae Steen, Joan Harris, Dolores Westover, Nancy Davis, Catherine McMurray, Kay Tisdale, Genevieve Oberly, and Priscilla Zimmerman. Each new member was assigned to two old members who initiated her as they saw fit. The initiation was carried into the evening, and the girls were required to wear their costumes to the football game. The new members entertained the old members with a very successful scavenger hunt.

This year the uniforms of the Pep Squad were purple sweat shirts; usual white skirts, and little purple and white felt beanies bearing the name, Hominy.

Drum Corps

The Drum Corps performed very well this year under the direction of their Drum Majorette, Cara Lee Powell. They had pep parades and marched at the football field during the half of every home game. The girls cooperated nicely in learning new marches.

During the half of the game with Cleveland, the crowning of the Football Queen took place. Laverne Bradford was selected, with Cara Lee Powell, Ann Drummond, and Marguerite Lazelle as attendants. The Queen and attendants followed the Drum Corps onto the field in a beautiful blue convertible. The Queen wore a lovely brown-checked suit and a corsage of white astors. The crown-bearer was Gary Westover, and the flower-bearer, Jan Pettit. The captain for the night, Charles Newhouse, a bouquet of beautiful white crown on her head, and sealed al kiss. When it was all over and attendants drove off the burst of applause.

Senior Play

First Row: Cara Lee Powell, Laverne Bradford, Juanita Fast, Patty Ann Terrill, Macie Ward, Nelda Killgore, Louise Kirkbride, Wanda Potts, Carmelita McNair.
Second Row: Stanley Shunkahmolah, Charles Hendricks, Eulon Shelton, Clifford Pattison, Lloyd Burger, Mrs. Canada.

The seniors made a clean sweep of all their troubles in their three-act comedy play, "Clean Sweep." The action in the entire play was revolved around the Hazard household and friends. The mother was skillfully portrayed by Cara Lee Powell. Her husband, Mr. Hazard, a very stubborn person, was a roll executed by Clifford Pattison with his original manner of playing such paternal parts. Mr. Hazard had inherited the Kleenaird, a vacuum factory. The news of his friend's death and of his inheritance was brought to him by Wanda Potts, who, under the title of Miss Carruthers, was a capable female lawyer. The shock of the inheritance had an affect on the entire household, including the son, Douglas Hazard, a rold played by Charles Hendricks, who idly dreamed of being an official in a large corporation. Since his dreams seemed futile, he engaged his time by reading movie magazines. While Doug was thus engaged, a dainty miss of the same age, Carole Reeves, portrayed by Nelda Kilgore, continued to follow him. Carole was aided in her pursuit by Doug's sister, Laurie. June Hazard, a role cleverly portrayed by Laverned Bradford, like her mother, was a fanatic in regard to woman's rights. Cole Mitchell, a part interestingly played by Lloyd Burger, was June's fiancé until June expressed her and her mother's feelings concerning the rights and privileges of women--such as retaining her own name after marriage and economic equality. Cole, in order to get a ten cent raise for all the employees, was asked to resign by Mr. Hazard. This broke the engagement of Cole and June, seemingly for good. Jim Dugan, a role played by Stanley Shunkamolah, very capably represented the cause of the union to Mr. Hazard, who finally gave the strikers a twelve cent raise. Happily, inventions contrived by Doug not only brought peace to the firm, but also brought competition in industry, and a great boom resulted. Tommy Patterson, portrayed with realism by Eulon Shelton, needed a loan to re-open his shoe factory. Having received the money from Mrs. Hazard, and feeling inclined to keep the money in the family, he was attracted to the younger Hazard daughter, Laurie, a part enacted with enthusiasm by Patty Terrill. The role of Aunt Elsie, humorously portrayed by Juanita Fast, added atmosphere to the play. With Laurie's help, Aunt Elsie went to meet her former admirer. Three other characters who were involved in the 'clean sweep' are as follows: Trudy Searles, the 'hired girl', a character enacted by Macie Ward; Madame Lousie, a career woman, portrayed by Carmelita McNair; and Mr. Hazard's secretary, Miss Hayden, a role portrayed by Louise Kirkbride. The curtain reunited all the broke hearts and brought to a happy conclusion the affair of Tommy and Laurie.
